

Boston

THE BEST OF BOSTON EVERY DAY

April 1, 2010

Easter Sunday Brunch

EASTER SUNDAY BRUNCH

Angela Giannopoulos

Leave the preparation, the cleaning, and the chaos behind and head to any of these fine restaurants for a relaxing brunch on Easter Sunday. Bring the whole family, because you may even catch the Bunny himself hopping around.

AURA AT SEAPORT HOTEL

What's Easter without an egg hunt? Take your children to Aura and let them - for once in their lives - run wild through the Seaport Hotel lobby in search of Easter eggs. Enjoy the buffet at Aura with menu items such as the crab cake Benedict, ricotta blintzes, cheese and bacon quiche, honey glazed ham, leg of lamb and much more. The dessert buffet will not disappoint, with options such as the bread pudding, assortment of cheesecakes, butterscotch pudding, assorted cookies, and chocolate parfait.

Apr. 4, 10:30 a.m.-3 p.m., $48 adult, $12 child, children under 2 free, 1 Seaport Ln., Boston, 617-385-4300