

Father's Day Specials

WHERE TO DINE WITH DAD

By Angela Giannopoulos

We've compiled some of the city's best restaurant specials for this Father's Day. Treat him to all-you-can-eat barbecues, brunch and beer buffets, or three-course feasts. Forget the tie and #1 Dad mug, and treat him to something special this year.

AURA RESTAURANT

Aura Restaurant began their Fine Dining Family Style series to make going out to eat an enjoyable experience for both the kids and the parents. On the Friday before Father's Day Aura will open a "romper room" filled with toys and crafts where the little ones can make their own personal card for Dad, all while the proud parents enjoy a nice dinner out. The prix fixe menu – an arrangement of modern American cuisine – includes skirt steak with potato puree, sweet corn and tomato succotash with red wine glaze; and grilled salmon with warm curried quinoa and golden raisin salad, braised Swiss chard, tamarind sauce and raita. Children can enjoy their own prix fixe, served in a bright red Bento box, and even the smallest of diners will have a selection of baby purees for just $3. As a unique Father's Day treat, Aura will offer a matching craft beer menu pairing each entrée with the perfect beer, such as Sam Adams, Peak Nut, and Harpoon.

June 18, 5:30-10 p.m., $30 adults/$14 children,
Seaport Hotel, One Seaport Ln., Boston, 617-385-4300
