This Halloween, Aura invites families to test their nerves and their taste buds at a special Halloween celebration at the Seaport Hotel. Under the cover of darkness, children trick-or-treat in costume through the hotel's departments and visit the Hall of Horrors, featuring a jack-o'-lantern collection (courtesy of the Seaport staff) and spider webs.

After trick-or-treating, families will sit down to dinner at Aura for Fine Dining, "Family-Style", a dinner program for parents looking to balance a night out with a welcoming spot for kids to act like kids. In addition to a play space filled with toys, kids will be entertained by face painting and a screening of 'It's the Great Pumpkin Charlie Brown'. Zombie Chef Rachel Klein will also be serving up a special kid's menu of culinary creep-outs, such as:

Dracula Blood Soup

Tomato soup and grilled cheese

Fried Bat Wings

Chicken wings, sliced blood orange and ketchup

Sweet Brain Nuggets

Sweet & sour chicken, broccoli, pineapple and lo mein noodles

Pumpkin Ice Cream & Zombie Eyeballs

Warm spice, pumpkin ice cream, tapioca pearls with a sweet milk sauce

Families are also invited to spend Halloween night at the Seaport Hotel with the "Family Fridays" hotel package, which includes FDFS dinner for 2 adults & 2 kids (ages 2-12), a Friday overnight in a deluxe room with 2 double beds, use of the Wave Health & Fitness club and pool, passes to the Children's Museum (2 adults, 2 kids), complimentary valet parking, and a toy for each child from the Seaport's Treasure Chest. The "Family Fridays" package is $275/Friday night; $145 for additional nights.

ABOUT FINE DINING, "FAMILY-STYLE:"

Every Friday, Aura invites families in for FDFS's early family dinner seatings, where parents enjoy Chef Rachel Klein's fine dining stylings and kids are able to romp & play in a dedicated play space where it's OK for kids to act like kids. Once a month—and twice in December—families will be treated to special guests and entertainment.

Adults can order from Aura's regular menu or a 3-course, $30 prix fixe menu, while children enjoy their own menu of healthy kid-friendly favorites.
